THE [Numb. 894.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, June 24, 1762.

MADRID, March 22.

TROOPS continue to file off to Salamanca, the Place of the general Rendezvous. The Marquis de Saria, Commander in Chief, ſet out Yeſterday for the Army. It is reported that the Cavalry will be augmented with 25 Squadrons.

M. de Valiere, a French Lieutenant-General, is arrived here with a Lieutenant-Colonel of Artillery; and it is ſaid they will ſoon be followed by two other French Colonels.

A few Days ago we received Advice, that Lord Tyrawley was arrived at Liſbon, with 40 Engliſh Officers. This News has occaſioned a Commotion here, and will probably haſten the Opening of the Campaign.

Genoa, March 27. The Spaniſh Troops aſſembled in Caſtile amount to 30,000 Men. The right Wing of this Army was to be, on the 18th Inſtant at Zamora, which is only four Leagues from the Frontiers of Portugal. The left Wing directs its March to Ciudad Rodrigo, which is ſtill nearer to Portugal. The Court of Madrid will be forced to break with that of Liſbon.

Ten Ships of War, victualled for three Months, are ready to ſail from Cadiz. The Ferrol Squadron is completely equipped.

Hague, March 20. According to the laſt Advices from Stettin, Frankfort on the Oder, Breſlau, Berlin and Magdebourg, his Pruſſian Majeſty, by being releaſed from his Diſputes with the Ruſſians and Swedes, by the Releaſe of Priſoners, and the Recruits he will be able to raiſe in thoſe Dominions that are now evacuated, will be able to take the Field in Sileſia next Campaign with at leaſt 60,000 Men more than he had in the laſt. It ſeems alſo not improbable, that before it opens, he may, by the powerful Interpoſition of Ruſſia, compromiſe Matters with the King of Poland, which would afford the Army of the Empire (what they certainly wiſh) a fair Pretence for diſperſing, and then the War muſt be determined by a ſharp and bloody Diſpute in Sileſia.

Hamburgh, April 3. The Emperor of Ruſſia ſeems determined to ſeize the Bailiwicks which he claims in Holſtein; and the King of Denmark to keep Poſſeſſion of them. It is reported, that the King of Denmark is negociating Four Millions of Crowns in the Canton of Berne under the Guaranty of France. There ſeems to be ſome Foundation for the Report that 14,000 Ruſſians are on their March to enter Holſtein.

Paris, April 2. One of the Tranſports that had on board the Regiment of Augoumois, bound to Louiſiana, is taken by the Engliſh. M. de Froment, the Colonel of the Regiment, was on board this Ship.

Duſſeldorp, March 28. Deſerters from the Allied Army inform us, that it is expected to be reinforced by a Body of 25 or 30,000 Ruſſians by the 1ſt of May. We are aſtoniſhed, but not terrified at this News. What chiefly occupies us for the preſent, is our Impatience for the Arrival of the Count d'Etrees. With that General at our Head, we ſhall have nothing to fear. He will lead us to certain Victory. Our Enemies cannot have forgot the Battle of Haſtenbeck.

Paris, April 3. We have juſt received, by the Way of London, the diſagreeable News of the Surrender of Fort-Royal, at Martinico, and that moſt of the Quarters of the Iſland had followed its Example. This News was little expected, after what had been ſaid of the reſpectable Poſture of the Iſland, and of the Reception of the Enemy at their firſt Landing. Having been told that there were not fewer than 30,000 Men on the Iſland, well armed, and full of Reſolution, we made ourſelves perfectly eaſy; and were aſtoniſhed to ſee by the Capitulation, that the Garriſon of Fort-Royal conſiſted only of 800 Men. M. de la Touche, an intrepid Officer, having retired to Fort St. Piere, will indeed retard the Reduction of the reſt of the Iſland; but that will be of no Advantage to us.

It is aſſured that the Marſhal d'Etrees will ſet out for the Army immediately after Eaſter, or perhaps ſooner. The Prince of Conde will make the Campaign in Heſſe, under the Prince de Soubiſe.

It is ſaid, that Half of the Cavalry of the King's Houſhold will make the Campaign this Year; and that the Prince of Conde will command a Body of 25,000 Men on the Lower Rhine. The Chevalier de Boutteville, Major General, is to ſerve in Spain.

The Deſign of fortifying the Iſle of Aix is attended with ſo many Difficulties, that it hath been laid aſide. The Regiments deſigned to be employed in that Service have received Orders to be ready to march where ever Circumſtances may require. It is thought they will make a Part of the 12,000 Men intended for Spain.

Berlin, April 3. The King has ſent Orders to all the Auſtrian Officers, Priſoners of War, who are abſent on their Parole, to repair, in the Space of eight Weeks at fartheſt, from the 2d Inſtant, to Magdebourg. We are told that the Emperor of Ruſſia has declared, that he will not be crowned till a Peace be ſigned with Pruſſia.

We learn from Breſlau, that all the Regiments are complete, and abundantly provided with all the Implements of War, ſo that the Campaign may be opened as ſoon as the King pleaſes. Mean while, we are informed that his Majeſty has ſignified that he will readily liſten to an Accommodation, provided the Court of Vienna will admit, as the Baſis of it, that Matters with Regard to the Poſſeſſions of the two Crowns ſhall be put on the ſame Footing as they were before the preſent Rupture.

LONDON, April 10.

Yeſterday Morning the Purſer of the Falmouth arrived at the Eaſt-India Houſe, with News of the Falmouth, Dale, and the Prince Edward, Haldane, from Fort St. George, being arrived at Plymouth: And that the Oſterly, Vincent; the Worceſter, Hall; and the Prince George, Roſs, from London, were arrived at Bencoolen: The Fox, Hume; the Warren, Glover; the Earl of Temple, Foſter; and the Earl of Holderneſſe, Brooke, from London, at Madraſs: And that the Hawke, Kent, and the Pitt, Jackſon, left the Indies about the ſame Time. The Falmouth and Prince Edward bring 52,000 Pagadoes in Diamonds. There is alſo Advice of the Deaths of Admiral Stevens, Mr. Jackſon, and Mr. Palmer, two of the Company's Writers.

Admiral Stevens being dead, the Command in Chief devolves on Admiral Corniſh. Capt. Tiddeman had ſailed from Madraſs with five Men of War, to join Admiral Corniſh, who it is thought would attempt Mauritius.

The Falmouth and Prince Edward have on board Monſieur de Laree, the French Governor of Pondicherry, and ſeveral Military Officers; all the Fortifications of which Place were totally deſtroyed, and the Guns carried to Madraſs.

A Draught of 100 Men has been made out of the Royal Regiment of Artillery at Woolwich; and they are now under Orders to embark for Liſbon.

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, April 4.

"This Evening, ſince Six o'Clock, the Æolus Man of War, of 28 Guns, has ſent in here a Privateer of 22 Guns, and another of 16 Guns; and ſent into Portſmouth one more of 24 Guns. The Æolus is hourly expected in here with a great Number of Priſoners, ſaid to be about 700.

"P. S. We juſt now learn, that the Æolus is gone in Chace of another large French Privateer."

Notwithſtanding the many Reports to the contrary, no Orders are given to diſcontinue the Preparations making for an Embarkation of Troops for Liſbon.

They write from Liſbon, that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador was ordered to leave that Court, upon four Hours Notice.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, April 8.

"All the Ships of the Line, except the Royal Sovereign, are ſailed from Spithead into the Harbour to refit, as we expect a large Fleet to be made up for Admiral Sir Edward Hawke as faſt as poſſible againſt the Beginning of May.

"We expect his Majeſty's Ship Britannia to be launched from our Dock in May or June next. She is a prodigious fine Firſt Rate, of 120 Guns.

"At Spithead Admiral Geary, with eight Sail of Men of War."

They write from Peterſburgh, that the Emperor wears the King of Pruſſia's Picture in a Ring ſet round with Diamonds, with this Motto, FRIENDSHIP GIVES IT VALUE.

The Reſolution, Blackſtone, of and for Tinmouth, is arrived at Plymouth from Corunna, by Permiſſion from the Court of Spain. She left Corunna Thurſday Sevennight, where were detained 4 Packets, 4 Ships with Fiſh, the Wilſon, and the Reynolds. The Maſter reports, that there were 9 Sail of the Line at Ferrol; and that the Kingſton, from Guadaloupe, belonging to Liverpool, was taken and carried in there.

The Syren, Bydat, a Letter of Marque, from Cape Francois to Bourdeaux, with 108 Hogſheads of white Sugar, and 30,000 lb. of Coffee, is taken by the Alarm Privateer of Guernſey.

Twenty-three Privateers, and other Veſſels, have been taken by our Cruizers from our Enemies, in three Weeks Time.

The Three Siſters, of and from Glaſgow for Maryland, is arrived at Falmouth, firſt being taken by a French Privateer and afterwards retaken by His Majeſty's Ship Bellona.

Letters from Germany adviſe, that Prince Ferdinand propoſes to open the Campaign with an important Blow. His Army is conſiderably reinforced by the numerous Recruits that have been raiſed, during the Winter, in Hanover, and in other Places where the Troops were quartered. It is added, that his Serene Highneſs would have taken the Field before this Time, had he not waited for his final Inſtructions from the Court of London, which (theſe Letters add) is negociating with certain Princes of Germany, and of the North, for Troops to ſerve in Britiſh Pay.

According to the laſt Letters from Paris, the Courts of France and Spain give up their Weſt-India Settlements as loſt; and are determined to make a home Thruſt into the Bowels of Great-Britain and Ireland; aſſuring themſelves, that if they ſucceed, England will be glad to reſtore all her Conqueſts.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, April 9.

"They write from Copenhagen, that the King hath reſolved to augment his Navy this Year with 24 Ships of the Line, and 12 Frigates; which occaſions much Speculation.

"Letters received this Day from Paris adviſe, that the Plan of Operations is at length ſettled; and that it hath been reſolved in Council, to open the Campaign by giving Battle to Prince Ferdinand, and immediately after to make the utmoſt Efforts to take Poſſeſſion of the Electorate of Hanover."

Various Reaſons have been aſſigned for the ſudden and ſurprizing Change in the Politics of the Court of Ruſſia; and amongſt others it is ſaid, that a Deſign was laid by the French and ſome Malecontents, to ſet aſide the Succeſſion of the preſent Emperor; which laſt Account has been fully confirmed by ſome authentic Advices lately received ſom Peterſburgh, importing, that about two Hours before the late Empreſs's Death, ſhe ſent for the Grand Duke; and ordering every Perſon to depart the Room, informed him there was a Conſpiracy to aſſaſſinate him the Moment after her Deceaſe; that ſhe herſelf had conſented to it; but that ſhe now adviſed him to repair immediately to Mr. Keith, the Engliſh Miniſter's Houſe, as the beſt Place of Safety; which he accordingly did: This accounts for the great Marks of Civility ſhewn by the Emperor to that Miniſter.

April 15. The following Troops are to be embarked by the laſt of this Month for Portugal, viz.

From Belleiſle. 3d Regiment, Old Buffs; 67th, Lambert's; 74th Boſcawen's; 85th, Crauford's, 10 Comp. The Buffs to be completed out of Forreſter's, now at Belleiſle; Lamberts and Boſcawen's by Draughts from the new Corps in England.

From Ireland. 83d Regiment, Armſtrong's; 91ſt, Blaney's. From England. Only Burgoyne's Light Horſe.

Generals; Earl of Loudoun, Geo. Townſhend. Brigadiers; Crauford, Lambert, Armſtrong. Adjutant-General, O'Harra. Quarter-Maſter General, O'Harra.

We hear that all the Regiments of Militia are ordered to hold themſelves in Readineſs to encamp on the firſt Notice.

The Embargo on all Corn and Proviſion Ships in the Ports of Great-Britain and Ireland is prolonged one Month longer.

Yeſterday Sir Edward Hawke was a great while with His Majeſty at St. James's.

Letters from Rochelle adviſe, that the Garriſon of Fort Royal was already arrived there from Martinico.

The Governor and the whole French Council of Pondicherry came over in the Prince Edward Indiaman.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, March 20.

" Three Days ago was brought in here, by one of our Men of War, the Flora, a French Privateer of 26 Guns, and 250 Men. She had been out three Months from Marſeilles, and had taken nothing. She was going to Cadiz for Proviſions and Water, as ſhe always cruized to the Weſtward of Madeira."

April 20. The French have nine Sail of the Line rigged, and two Frigates, in the River Charente, which leads from Rochfort; but theſe Ships cannot come down the River, with their Guns in, and are likewiſe blocked up by Commodore Howe, in the Magnanime, with ten Sail of the Line, two Frigates and two Fireſhips.

The three Engliſh Tranſports, that arrived at Rochelle with the French Garriſon from Martinico, about 80 Leagues from our Iſlands fell in with the French Squadron that ſailed from Breſt the 23d of January, which, on hearing of the Loſs of Martinico, ſteered directly for Cape Francois.

It is remarkable, that many of the Sovereign Princes of Europe now living are the THIRD of their reſpective Names, viz.

1. GEORGE III. King of England.
2. Charles III. King of Spain.
3. Auguſtus III. King of Poland.
4. Charles Emanuel III. King of Sardinia.
5. Muſtapha III. Emperor of the Turks.
6. Peter III. the new Emperor of Ruſſia.

Copy of a Letter from Dublin, April 1, 1762.

You will probably have heard ſtrange Accounts of a great Number of Rioters in the Counties of Tipperary, Waterford, and Limerick. Their Aſſemblies are in Fact very extraordinary, and the real Cauſe is not fully underſtood: But there ſeems to be no Foundation for the Reports of their having French or Spaniſh Officers among them, of their being well armed and diſciplined, or indeed of their being in any Manner formidable; tho' it is ſuppoſed from what they have done, that they muſt be very numerous.

They at firſt called themſelves Fairies, becauſe they appeared at Night only, and then levelled Ditches, and dug up Fields, which they alledged to have been Commons, and incloſed by neighbouring Gentlemen; and then departed before Day-light. They afterwards took the Name of Levellers, and declared they would reſtore the Property of the Poor, oblige Landlords to let their Land on reaſonable Terms, and reduce the Price of Meat and Grain to reaſonable Rates.

It is thought that large Tracts of Land are fallen into the Hands of Gentlemen in theſe Counties, who, on ſettling their Farms, removed a Number of Tenants; that theſe Tenants have been able to ſtir up their Cotters and Under-tenants to theſe Acts of Violence; and as the Spirit of Miſchief increaſes faſt when not quickly corrected, a large Party of the Levellers marched to Tallow, forced the Goal, and ſet the Priſoners at Liberty. The Magiſtrates had before been called upon to put the Laws in Execution, and orders were ſent to the Troops throughout theſe Counties to aſſiſt the Juſtices of the Peace in the Execution of their Offices, and a Reward of 100 l. each for the diſcovery and apprehending the firſt five Rioters was proclaimed, and Promiſes of Pardon to the Diſcoverers and Parties concerned; but no Advantage followed; the Rioters increaſed in Number, and ſpread ſuch a Terror, that the Inhabitants durſt not diſcover, and the Magiſtrates were afraid to act.

The Lord Lieutenant has therefore been obliged to ſend Lord Drogheda's Regiment of Light Dragoons, conſiſting of near 500 Men, to quell theſe Riots; and it is not doubted, but the quartering the Regiment in proper Stations, will put an End to the whole Buſineſs. An Account came Yeſterday, that 100 Levellers made an Attack on the Barracks of Caſhell, in the Middle of the Night, and that a Serjeant and 12 Men drove them off, and took four of them Priſoners; and in conducting them the next Day to the Goal of Clonmell, a great Number of Levellers attempted a Reſcue, but the Party firing on them, killed one Man, diſperſed the reſt, and lodged their Priſoners in Clonmell Goal.

There is Advice from Ireland that the Rioters have proclaimed the Pretender in that Kingdom by the Name of James III. &c. that they march with a white Flag, with the Harp and a Crown over it, and wear white Cockades; and that it is certain that their Commanders are Officers from France and Spain. The Aſſociation of the Proteſtants of the City of Cork ſhews that they make not light of this Affair.

Some Letters from Ireland, dated the 10th Inſt. mention, that a Ship had been taken upon the Coaſt, with ſeveral French and Spaniſh Officers, and a great Number of Stands of Arms on board.

Sunday Morning ſailed from the Nore a Fleet of Tranſports, with the Horſe and Foot on board, bound to Bremen.

Admiralty-Office, April 7. His Majeſty's Ship the Renown, commanded by the Hon. Captain Maitland, is arrived at Plymouth, with the Domerville, a French Privateer Snow, of Eight Carriage and Eight Swivel Guns, and 64 Men, which ſhe took the 24th of laſt Month, twelve Leagues S. W. from Scilly.

Admiralty-Office, April 14. His Majeſty's Sloop the Diligence, commanded by Capt. Oſborne, is arrived at Plymouth, with a Privateer Brigantine called the Melouen, from St. Maloes, mounting ſix Carriage and four Swivel Guns, and mann'd with 34 Men, which ſhe took on the 8th Inſtant off the Ediſtone, having been out but four Days.

IRELAND.

Cork, April 5. This Morning Dennis Connor, of Tallow, Wool-comber, one of the White Boys, who was lately apprehended at Youghall, was carried under a proper Guard for Dublin.

Thurſday laſt was committed to the City Goal, Darby Fitzpatrick, Taylor, for knocking down Thomas Sheehy, and for drinking good Luck to the White Boys.

Saturday Evening was committed to the County Goal, Henry Size and Nicholas Margrath, who were apprehended at Kilworth, charged and ſuſpected of being aiding and aſſiſting the Clan called White Boys. The ſame Evening was committed to the ſame Goal, James Drue, Peter Deneen, Garret Nagle, John Corkran, and John Motrouney, apprehended at Rathcormack, charged with being guilty of rebellious Practices.

Juſt now 16 more of the White Boys, one of whom is ſaid to be a Captain and a Man of conſiderable Property, who were taken Yeſterday near Tallow, were brought from thence to Town, guarded by a Detachment of Foot, and a Party of Light Horſe, and lodged in the County Goal.

We are in hourly Expectation of more of theſe Levellers from Youghall, againſt whom Informations have been given; ſo that the Fears of the People in thoſe Parts, occaſioned by theſe lawleſs Rioters, are pretty well over.

Yeſterday all the Roman Catholic Clergy of this City, by order of their Superior, exerted themſelves in the moſt pathetic Terms, to excite their reſpective Congregations to the juſt Abhorrence of the infamous Practices of the Perſons called Levellers, whom they repreſented as unfaithful to their God, by giving Umbrage to the State; and not only Enemies but Perſecutors of their Religion, by provoking the Indignation of the moſt indulgent Government.

Extract of a Letter from Youghall, April 2.

" Laſt Night the Army and Militia of this Town were under Arms for ſeveral Hours, in Expectation of a Viſit from the Levellers, agreeable to their repeated Threatenings, but after waiting till 12 o'Clock without the Favour of their Company, we determined to ſeek them in their own Quarters; and at One this Morning, about Fifty of our Militia, well mounted and armed, with Matthew Parker, Eſq; at their Head, and Forty Soldiers, commanded by Lieutenant Lewis, marched ſilently from thence, arrived at Tallow about 5 o'Clock, where they took (moſtly in their Beds) 11 Levellers, againſt whom Information on Oath was given; marched them through this Town about Noon in their White uniform, and then lodged them under a ſtrong Guard in the Barracks, from whence they will be ſent to Cork in the King's Boat the firſt fair Wind. The Joy in every honeſt Countenance on ſeeing theſe White Boys brought to Town, is inexpreſſible, and I hope will ſoon be increaſed by the taking ſome more of them; for I aſſure you our Lads are as eager to hunt them as ever a keen Pack of Dogs were to hunt a Fox."

Limerick, April 5. Yeſterday and this Day two Diviſions of the Earl of Drogheda's Light Dragoons arrived here.

Dublin, April 10. A Gentleman in the County of Cork writes to his Friend in Dublin, April 5, " What you in Dublin think of the White Boys, or Levellers, I cannot ſay; but, be aſſured, both you there, and we here, have abundant Reaſon to thank God, that ſome of thoſe taken have diſcovered their Confederates. I am in hopes ſoon to have Information againſt ſome of their principal Gentry and Officers. Yeſterday a Man was ſent off to Dublin, who ſays he will make great Diſcoveries when before the Government."

Extract of a Letter from Cork, April 6.

" By an Expreſs from Liſmore, we learn, that the Queen, with 40 of the Heads of the White Boys are taken. The Queen proves to be a Spaniſh Friar or Prieſt, who came over ſome Time ago to take Poſſeſſion of an Eſtate of conſiderable Value; moſt of the People taken are Perſons of good Fortune.

Several Letters from Cork, Limerick, and Waterford, adviſe, that upwards of 70 Rioters were already taken; that the Right Hon. Lord Beresford was remarkably active in the County of Waterford.

They write from Tipperary, that two of the Rioters being taken, they were ſent under a Guard to Clonmell. On the Way a Reſcue was attempted, the Soldiers fired, killed ſome, and wounded others. The reſt ran away.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) May 22.

Private Letters, by an Expreſs from Fort Prince-George laſt Monday, dated the 6th Inſtant ſay, that the Cherokees ſeemed ſtill to have as much Venom at Heart, as at the firſt breaking out of the late War; and that notwithſtanding their late reiterated Promiſes to deliver up our Priſoners, none had then yet appeared.——Capt. Mackintoſh had not heard from over the Hills ſince the 16th ult. nor a Word of the Priſoners.

May 29. On Tueſday laſt arrived here a French Prize Snow, called Le Bien-Aime, Francis Suau, late Maſter, from Cape Francois, bound for Bourdeaux, taken the Thurſday before in Lat. 28, Long. 65, by the Nelly Frigate of London, Capt. Benjamin Smith Commander. The French Captain offered 5000 l. for her Ranſom. Her Cargo conſiſts of about 100 Hogſheads of beſt white Sugars, about 5 Tons of Indico, and 10 of Coffee, &c. &c. She ſailed from the Cape on the 10th Inſtant with a Fleet of about 12 Dutch armed Sloops for Coracoa, &c. and ſome Engliſh Veſſels, and was taken the 20th. Two Days before ſhe left the Cape, Capt. Harvey appeared off there with 7 Britiſh Ships of the Line. The French Captain ſays, that he left in the Ports of Hiſpaniola about 80 Sail of Engliſh Traders from North-America, Providence, &c.

NEW-YORK, June 14.

Laſt Saturday Afternoon, his Majeſty's Ship the Lizard, Capt. Banks, arrived here from Antigua, in 14 Days Paſſage; on board of whom returned his Excellency the Honourable ROBERT MONCKTON, Eſq; our Governor and Commander in Chief, and Major General of his Majeſty's Forces, from his ſucceſsful Expedition againſt the Iſland of Martinico. His Excellency landed at Whitehall Stairs, where he was received by his Honour Lieut. Governor COLDEN, and a great Number of other Gentlemen, under the Diſcharge of the Cannon in Fort-George; his Excellency's ſudden (though not unexpected) Arrival, affording no Time for the Militia, who were under muſtering Orders, to appear for his more general welcome Reception.

The Lizard had under Convoy, a Schooner which had on board Governor Monckton's Baggage, and five of his Domeſticks; but the third Day after they ſailed, they were eſpied by two large Ships, who giving Chace, came up with the Schooner, and detained her; from which it was conjectured they were Enemy's Ships. It is ſaid one of them appeared to be a Double-decker, the other a Frigate. The Schooner has not been heard of ſince and it is feared is made a Capture of.

Part of a Letter from London, April 20.

—" Every Thing is carried on ſo ſecret in the Cabinet, that nothing tranſpires. We hear of ſingle Ships ſailing, as well as Fleets, but never hear of their Deſtination, till their Arrival at the deſigned Place, or return with Prizes. It is the Opinion of Numbers, that tho' Mr. Pitt has declined the Miniſtry, he is conſulted, and all his Plans purſued, he being frequently at Court, and in private with his Majeſty.

The Fleet at Sandy-Hook got under Way laſt Thurſday Morning; but were obliged to come to again; his Majeſty's Ship Intrepid having ſtruck on the Middle-Ground; and they were obliged to ſtart 50 Tons of her Water before ſhe got off: But they again put to Sea Friday Evening.

The 16th of May an Engliſh Fleet, conſiſting of 150 Sail, was ſeen off Monte-Chriſto.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 11.

Yesterday a Transport arrived at Hampton from New-York, the Master of which says that the Chesterfield Man of War might be expected in Hampton Road in two or three Days.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 10, 1762.

"I have the Pleasure of acquainting you, that Yesterday's Letters from Spain brought undoubted Intelligence, that Orders were dispatched to the respective Ports, for the Release of all the English Ships.—There is even a Ship arrived at Plymouth, which had been detained for some Months in the Groyne, from whence she sailed last Thursday was Se'ennight, by Permission from the Court of Spain; so that I make not the least Doubt but all the other Vessels will be released."

On Saturday last arrived here Captain Magnus Miller from Jamaica, who on the 22d ult. spoke with the Echo Frigate of War, Convoy to the London and Cork Trade to that Island, and had in Company three French Privateers she had taken, two of 12, the third of 14 Guns. Captain M'Lane, one of the Fleet that came out with Captain Miller, and bound to New-York, it is feared, is taken by a Privateer Schooner. Captain Miller was informed, that Admiral Pocock's Fleet was certainly designed for the Havannah.

By Captain Cooper from Guadaloupe, but last from St. Christophers, we learn, that His Majesty's Frigate Levant had taken, off of St. Martins, a French Privateer Brig from Cape Francois, that had taken four Prizes lately on this Coast, said to belong to Maryland, New-York, and New-England. The Levant brought in with her, at the same Time, a Dutch Prize. The Privateer formerly belonged to St. Christophers, and was commanded by Captain Reed; she had had two Engagements with two Ships before she fell in with the Frigate, and beat off both Times.

A Privateer, belonging to Sandy-Point, had also taken and brought in a Spanish and Dutchman, but of no great Value.

The Ship Willy, Captain M'Connell, from this Port for Londonderry, was taken, and afterwards retaken, and sent to Guernsey.

To be LET (for a Term of Years, if required,)

A PIECE of GROUND on Corsica Creek, Chester River, Queen-Anne's County, whereon is a good Dwelling-House, Store-House, Grainary, and other convenient Houses, also a paled Yard and Garden; which may suit a Merchant, either in the Grain or Tobacco Trade, the Building lying so commodious at the Water's Edge, where Sea Vessels do frequently load. For Terms apply to JAMES COX.

THE Managers of the Subſcription for making the River Patowmack Navigable for Small Craft, from Wills's-Creek to the Great-Falls, have Reſolved to poſtpone their Meeting at Frederick-Town to the 26th Day of July next. It appeared neceſſary to prolong the Time for ſeveral Reaſons: Firſt, Some of the Gentlemen who had determined to aſſiſt in making an accurate Survey of the River, in marking and pointing out the neceſſary Work to be done, and in calculating (upon the Spot) the Expence of every particular Undertaking, cannot poſſibly attend ſo ſoon as the Time mentioned in their firſt Addreſs to the Public: In the next Place, After more mature Deliberation, the Month of May was thought too early, as the River is generally high at that Seaſon, beſides it's being more liable to be ſwelled by the Rains then, than in the Months of June and July, when the Waters are not only for the moſt part low, but may reaſonably be expected to continue in a ſettled equal State for ſome Time together, a Circumſtance, without which it would be difficult to ſurvey and examine the River with the neceſſary Accuracy: Add to theſe, The Oppoſition the Deſign met with from a Gentleman who alarmed the Public, by placing in their View a Crowd of Difficulties, which exiſted only in his Deſcription, by confounding vaſt Deſigns, which would impoveriſh Nations to effect, with a Work, which, tho' of the greateſt Uſe and Importance to the Public, may yet be effected at a very moderate Expence: In a Word, by writing with great Ingenuity upon a Subject he had not well conſidered. The Managers have now the Pleaſure to inform the Public, that Subſcriptions are filling very faſt, and that People in general, but more eſpecially in the Back Counties, and thoſe bordering upon Patowmack, diſcover ſo much Alacrity in promoting the Affair, that there is not the leaſt Doubt but a Sum will be raiſed, ſufficient to carry on the Work by the Day now appointed for their Meeting. Fully ſatisfied of this, they take the preſent Opportunity to deſire ſuch as are inclinable to become Undertakers, to be very particular in their Examination of every Part of the River, to calculate the neceſſary Expence as they proceed, to inform themſelves of every Difficulty, and how to remove it; and when thus prepared, to meet the Managers at Frederick-Town in Maryland, on the 26th Day of July, as before mentioned, that their Obſervations may be compared with thoſe in the Hands of the Managers, in order to prevent further Delays, and that they may be enabled on both Sides to enter into Contracts without Danger of Confuſion or Impoſition; and thoſe who ſhall then appear to have been aſſiduous and exact in their Enquiries, may depend upon receiving a ſuitable Recompenſe.

ALL Perſons indebted to the Eſtate of the late Edward Dorſey, of Annapolis, Eſq; deceaſed, are deſired to ſettle with, and make Payment of the Debts due to the ſaid Eſtate to, Mr. Benjamin Beall, of Annapolis, who has Powers for that Purpoſe from
